MARCH 2026 - APRIL 2026

GRADMAG BULLETIN

The Stony Brook University Graduate Arts & Sciences Magazine
STUDENT-RUN ORGANIZATION | @SBU_GRADMAG | WWW.SBUGRADMAG.COM

RECAP: THE 2ND ANNUAL B.R.I.D.G.E.S CONFERENCE

The 2nd Annual B.R.I.D.G.E.S. Graduate Conference took place on February 19, 2026 was a huge succes. With over 300 attendees from more than 40 departments; 93 research posters, 12 artists and 6 musicians performing.

The program also included a keynote by Peter Stokes of Huron Consulting, along with professional development seminars led by Nancee Moes from the Alan Alda Center for Communicating Science and Alfreda James from the Stony Brook Career Center. The event concluded with remarks from Provost Carl Lejuez and Dean Celia Marshik, recognizing the interdisciplinary work of Stony Brook graduate students and the importance of communicating research across fields.

First Place Poster Award | $1,000
Lauren Rothburd, MS Student, Department of Psychology
"Temperament, Psychopathology, and Interpersonal Functioning Factors of Adolescent Social Media Use"

Second Place Poster Award | $500
Lily Cam, PhD Student, Department of Chemistry
"Uncovering NosP's Role in P. Geruginosa Biofilm Dispersal via Pyocyanin Profiling of Functional Residues"

Third Place Poster Award | $250
Sai Aishwarya Abasolo, PhD Student, Department of Biomedical Engineering
"Woven Bone-Mimicking Organoids as a Preclinical Platform and Therapeutic Construct for Bone Repair"

Art Award | $350
Benjamin Truong
MFA Student, Department of Art
Beaver Jesus

Film Award | $350
Issack Cintrón
MFA Student, Department of Film
¡Capicu!

Events!

GradMag's 3rd Magazine Release Celebration!
Date: May 5th
Time: 12 PM - 1:30 PM
Location: Shore Club (SAC 169)

RSVP

Tech & Friends

We are on the radio!

Tech & Friends features conversations with Stony Brook's graduate community. Listen live every other Friday from 1-2pm on WUSB 90.1 FM or catch up on our episodes with the QR code.